Old Business

- Discussion and vote on keeping the 8B office. - It was reported to the commissioners that there is currently an office being rented by the 8B Commission. The office, located at 1809 Savannah St, SE, is not currently in use. Chair Trantham discussed the condition of the office, particularly the smell of the rental space as well as current cost of the rental. After brief discussion about the location and condition, Chair Trantham tabled any action on the office space until more information is available to the commissioners.
- Discussion and vote of current AT&T cell phone bill - There is currently a balance on the cell phone account for the 8B Commissioners. There was a motion that the bill be paid in full so that phones could be given to commissioners to conduct community business. The motion passed unanimously.
