Presentations, Reports, and Community Comments

SPEAKER	COMMENT
Mr. Tommie Jones with DPR	Presentation and overview regarding their relationships in the community as well as advocacy efforts regarding services that they offer.
Lieutenant Duncan with MPD	Attended all the buildings of Parklands Apartments (Huntington Village, Orchard Park, Shipley Terrace). Met with the Property managers. Working to integrate their systems into their Realtime Crime system. larry.duncan@dc.gov
Dantes Partners, Joel Patterson, Marquida Howard, Andrew Barnes	Claims to have completed renovations during the Q4 of 2024. Cascade Park. Working on the last building of that project. Huntington Village: completed and finalizing some of the last open items regarding the contractor. Became aware of loitering and littering on the certain properties. There are issues where residents are placing trash. They encourage residents to locate their trash in the actual dumpster. Brought up the issue of rental delinquency.
Joseph Knight, Owner of the IHOP on Alabama Ave.	Wanted to come in and give us a report. They have changed their hours. Tomorrow is national pancake day.
LaTrina Antoine, DC Witness, Editor-In-Chief	dcwitness.org
Shakira Richardson, Program manager with the consumer protection unit	Tasked with getting the community to know how to start a business. Ensure that every business has the required license. Consumer Protections Seize (?) Act; helping to track shady contractors, can revoke said business licenses. Working on making licensure easier.
Devin Hurtado - Washington Nationals	Here to discuss programs that the Nationals offers through their Youth Baseball Academy for Wards 7 & 8. Looking to grow at The Ferebee Hope Rec Center site. www.ybaplay.com devin.hurtado@nationals.com

Commissioner's Report's	Commissioner Bryant: Geraldine Apartments; There is still rodent issues. Commissioner McLeese-Lewis: Focusing on Trauma and giving our constituents some things that they may need regarding mental health.
