Community Concerns

- No Community Comments due to time restrictions and election processes.

Secretary Recap

- During the election process an interruption was injected into the meeting by another commissioner having nothing to do with the election process.
- This not only interrupted the flow of the meeting but because of the complexities of the elections it put a stain on the process of a contentious election session.
- See Secretary Full Elections Report prepared by Commissioner Orendoff, Secretary.
- This episode raised concerns for all other commissioners who were in compliance with the election process but had questions and wanted a transparent election process without any confusion.
- Discussion of what occur briefly during election process and meeting close with a vote to table the remaining of our agenda meeting until 01.30.25 special call meeting scheduling.
- Commissioners tabling overview and scheduling below.

Adjournment

- The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 PM.
