4. UPDATES ON THE FEDERAL BUDGET AND ITS IMPLICATIONS FOR DC
POC: Trent Holbrook, Senior Legislative Counsel, Office of Congresswoman
Eleanor Holmes Norton

Trent Holbrook provided updates on the Federal Budget and its implications for DC. He stated the Continuing Resolution (CR) cut more than $1 billion from DC's current local budget halfway through the fiscal year. The CR effectively repealed the FY25 local budget enacted by DC, which DC had been operating under for six months, and restored the FY24 local budget enacted by DC, which DC stopped operating under six months ago. The Senate passed a separate bill immediately after the passage of the CR to fix the treatment of DC in the CR, but the House is not taking it up, so we face challenges getting the Senate-passed bill through the House. A question-and-answer period followed.

[Commissioner Watts joins the call at 6:53 p.m.]
