3. Guest Speaker

• Councilmember Wendell Felder

Over the last 30 days the constituent services team has responded to a little under 120 services requests ranging in the areas of illegal dumping, utility assistance, and public safety. Last month ward 7 had a leadership roundtable discussion. The office of planning is projected to release their master plan for RFK, once released neighbors has 45 days to provide input on the plan. WMATA recently released a transportation study, and they talked about some of the transit investments that they are projected to make to support the redevelopment of the campus. They had a ward 7 educational town hall. There were 2 pieces of legislation that was introduced, 1 passed and the other is in the pipeline. The first piece he introduced was pertaining to CBEs,(certified business enterprise) there's been a number of out -of-town companies who may have won an award here in the district but they are not CBE's.

• SBOE Rep. Ebonie-Rose Thompson

They recently passed a resolution in support of legislation which is called Eric's Law. Eric's law is thought of by a young man named Eric Carpenter Grantham. He is a Maryland resident who is a high fictional autistic young man.
