RFK Campus Redevelopment: The Commission discussed potential impacts of RFK campus redevelopment on Ward 7 communities including transportation considerations and community benefits.

Single Member District Reports

Commissioners provided updates regarding neighborhood issues, community meetings, traffic concerns, and constituent services within their respective SMDs.

Public Comment

Residents provided comments regarding neighborhood development, transportation safety, and community issues in River Terrace and surrounding neighborhoods.

Commission Business

Committee Updates: Committees provided updates on ongoing work related to transportation, public safety, and community engagement.

Proposed Motion: Alcoholic Beverage License Application: The Commission discussed an upcoming liquor license application expected to be presented at a future ANC meeting. The applicant has not yet formally presented to the Commission. Chair Brian Alcorn made a formal motion to move that ANC7D vote to protest transfers of a retailer's Class C Restaurant and Relaters Class B Beer and Wine store license from 1901 Michigan Avenue to a vacant, unimproved commercial property at 1504 East Capitol Street NE until settlement agreement or agreement or other is reached with the applicant. Reference numbers ABRA128673CR and ABRA128674B. Commissioner Ashley Schapitl seconded the motion and there were no questions from other commissioners or community members. Commissioners voted with "yeas" the majority, ANC is going to vote to protect those transfers.

Proposed Motion: ANC 7D to vote to support transfers on jurisdiction on various parcels and a part of a reservation to result in the district government control of Bridge 78 (located in 7D03). Chair Brian Alcorn made a formal motion to move that ANC7D vote to support the transfers. Commissioner Artile Wright seconded the motion and there were no questions from other commissioners or community members. Commissioners voted with "yeas" the majority, the motion carried.

Adjournment

The meeting adjourned at approximately 8:30 PM.
